

FACULTY WRITING WORKSHOP

MODEL OF A GRAB-AND-GO 20-MINUTE ACTIVITY
DEVELOPED BY
DR. LINDA C. MITCHELL AND MICHELLE HAGER

I've never much minded if people thought me a bit of a fool. Nevertheless, I should be able to undertake and complete anything. Moreover, my help is needed in embarrassing situations because I am sociable and entertaining. In addition, I have an unusually magnetic personality. With this in mind, I may have to be patient now—think, listen, and heed signs. Therefore, how I look depends on where I go.
