

CONFIDENTIAL & NON-CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES

This flier contains information about available campus resources and SJSU response protocols in the event that you or someone you know experiences sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, dating or domestic violence, stalking, discrimination or harassment based on any protected status, as well as retaliation for filing a complaint or participating in any process overseen by either the Title IX Office or the Office of Equal Opportunity ("DHR").

To learn more about SJSU's policies and procedures relating to Title IX and DHR, please use the QR codes below to visit the Title IX and Office of Equal Opportunity websites.

Statement of Nondiscrimination

The California State University (CSU) is committed to maintaining an inclusive community that values diversity and fosters tolerance and mutual respect. CSU does not discriminate, and does not tolerate discrimination, on the basis of sex or gender, which includes gender identity (including transgender), gender expression, sexual orientation or sex stereotype in its education programs or activities. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and certain other federal and state laws, prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex or gender or sexual orientation in employment, as well as in all education programs and activities operated by the University (both on and off campus). The protection against discrimination on the basis of gender or sexual orientation includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and dating and domestic violence and stalking.

WHO TO CONTACT

SJSU Title IX

The Title IX Office cares about your wellbeing and is here to help. Please contact us if you have questions, need access to support, or wish to report Sex- and Gender-Based Discrimination, including Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Exploitation, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Stalking, or Retaliation.

They can explain and discuss the right to file a criminal complaint (for example, in cases of sexual misconduct); SJSU's internal complaint process, including the investigation process; how privacy is protected; available resources, both on and off campus; and other related matters.
