

Need a better studying routine?

The Accessible Education Center (AEC) is hosting an academic workshop focused on building effective, sustainable study habits for college success.

Join us on Wednesday, February 25th 1:00pm to 2:00pm for the workshop. AEC Graduate Assistants are available until 3:00pm for questions and individual support.

Bring your course materials so we can organize and plan your study routine together!
