VIII. Action Items

A. Old Business

1. Action Item: Election Theme Proposal (5 minutes)

Presenter: Smriti Jha

Officer Jha will present the proposed designs for the Mario Party election theme and showcase the designs she has created in collaboration with A.S. Marketing. We will then vote on whether to continue with this theme for the rest of the elections or provide feedback and suggestions on the next steps.

2. Discussion Item: Campus Engagement Discussion and Brainstorm (10 minutes)

Discuss the most effective ways to encourage attendance at events, increase awareness about the elections, ensure multiple students run for each position, motivate students to vote, and anything else related.

B. New Business

1. Discussion Item: Review for Ethics and Orientation Sessions (8 minutes)

Discuss and confirm who on SEC will be attending each of the candidate orientation and ethics sessions. Additionally, we will review how the sessions will be structured and go over the usual format of these sessions are, so everyone is prepared.

2. Discussion Item: Merch and Swag Ideas (8 minutes)

Discuss potential merch and swag ideas for the elections, considering what students would like to see at tabling sessions and events to encourage engagement and attendance.

3. Discussion Item: Spartan Eats Collaboration (12 minutes)

Spartan Eats has invited us to table with them on March 19th and April 9th to help spread awareness to students in the dining commons. Discuss what swag items we want to distribute, whether we want to host a mini raffle to encourage participation, and potential ideas to make the tabling more engaging include setting up a backdrop or cardboard cutout for students to take pictures, creating an Instagram challenge where students post with the setup and tag us to enter a raffle, or brainstorming other interactive activities to boost engagement.
