Course Description

English 1A is the first course in SJSU's two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the "personal voice" and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings.

Prerequisites: Placement by the English Proficiency Test (EPT), or passage of an approved substitute course for the EPT.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

Students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:

- Clear and effective communication of meaning.
- An identifiable focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and show an awareness, implied or stated, of some opposing point of view).
- The ability to perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
- The ability to explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively.
- Effective use within their own essays of supporting material drawn from reading or other sources.
- Effective organization within the paragraph and the essay.
- Accuracy, variety, and clarity of sentences.
- Appropriate diction.
- Control of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

Student Learning Objectives:

SLO 1: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).

SLO 2: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.

SLO 3: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.

SLO 4: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to write for different audiences.

Classroom Protocol

- Participation:
 - This is a participation-based class, not a lecture course. Therefore, you should arrive everyday with your reading /drafts/opinion papers, etc., completed and be ready to participate actively in class discussions and group work. The more you give, the more you will receive.
- Attendance:
 - Every single day, we will do something in class that will help you develop your critical thinking and writing skills.
 - You should plan to attend every single class session.
 - In-class work, quizzes, workshops cannot be made up (the only exceptions involve athletes and extenuating circumstances)
 - Excessive absences will affect your grade
- Punctuality:
 - Here is the motto I live by:
“Early is on time. On time is late. Late is unacceptable.”
 - If you adopt this motto, I promise you that it will change your life
- Laptops:
 - Laptops are unnecessary and create a distraction; leave them at home.

- Cell Phones:
 - Texting or taking calls during class is rude. Using your phone during class communicates to me that you are busy doing something else. If you are busy doing something else, you cannot be participating in class. If you are addicted to text messaging and cannot fathom going 75 minutes without checking your phone, leave it at home. If it becomes a problem, I will ask you to leave for the day.

Assignments and Grading Policy

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area C3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B. A passing grade in the course signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

A+ = 1000-980	B+ = 899-870	C+ = 799-770	D = 699 - 600
A = 979-930	B = 869-830	C = 769-730	F = 599 and lower
A- = 929-900	B- = 829-800	C- = 729 - 700

Reading and Writing Requirements and Policies:

- Details on all writing requirements will be given in class.
- A handout explaining opinion papers will be provided in class
- All out-of-class work is to be typed, double-spaced, with 12-point font (Times New Roman) and 1-inch margins.
- All out-of-class work is due at the start of class and anything turned in more than five minutes after the start of class will be considered late
 - ✓ Late paper policy: Late papers will lose 10% per class session past the due date. Papers more than one week late will not be accepted.
- In-class essays (3) will be administered in class on the dates listed in our calendar. They cannot be made up unless a clear and compelling reason is cleared with me beforehand (being sick or waking up late or having car trouble and/or an annoying roommate don't count as reasons)
- Out-of-class essays (3) will utilize ideas from our readings and from in-class discussions. Ideas for assignments are welcome.
- Quizzes are random and unannounced and are given at the start of class. They cannot be made up.

Final Assignment:

Instead of a final exam, you will write a critical reflection at the end of the class. Think of it as a scientific study of your progress as a writer over the next four months. Remember, writing is a process. Collecting your work and then reflecting on that work is part of the process. The final assignment is designed to get you thinking about your specific challenges, your strategies for improvement, your successes and failures, and your goals for the future. Every writer, no matter how accomplished, has room for improvement. This assignment is your culminating experience. This course does not have a final exam.
