

Argument and Analysis Section 80

ENGL 1B

Spring 2024 3 Unit(s) 01/24/2024 to 05/13/2024 Modified 05/02/2024

Course Information

Course Theme

As the effects of climate change grow more severe, democracies waver toward totalitarianism, and geopolitical crises erupt one after the other, surveys routinely show that most Americans remain blissfully uniformed about global issues. In contrast, citizens around the world often have a complex understanding of the innerworkings of American life and politics. It is becoming increasingly clear that Americans' lack of knowledge can have negative ramifications not only for the world, but for the US, as well—for example, why do only 43% of Americans own a passport? In short, as leaders on the global stage, how can we operate from a place of authority if we don't understand, or know about, what's happening with our neighbors? Through reading, writing, and discussion, this semester's ENGL 2 will challenge you to examine our current international challenges in order to become the global citizens that the world needs us to be.

Course Description and Requisites

English 1B is a writing course that focuses on argumentation and analysis. Through the study of literary, rhetorical, and professional texts, students will develop the habits of mind required to write argumentative and critical essays. Particular emphasis is placed on writing and reading processes. Students will have repeated practice in prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing, and repeated practice in reading closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes.

GE Area(s): C2. Humanities

Prerequisite: ENGL 1A or ENGL 1AS with a C- or better.

ENGL 1B is not open to students who successfully completed ENGL 2.

Letter Graded

Classroom Protocols

ENGL 2

This course is open to all students needing to fulfill GE Area A3 (Critical Thinking). It is not open to students who have successfully completed ENGL 1B.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1A or Stretch English (with a grade of C- or better)

Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. You will engage in integrated reading, Writing, and oral assignments to construct your own arguments on complex issues (such as diversity and ethnicity, class and social equality) that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different ethnicities, genders, and socio-economic classes.

Writing: You will write a series of essays informed by research and articulating fully developed arguments about complex issues. Assignments emphasize those skills and activities in writing and thinking that produce the persuasive argument and the critical essay, each of which demands analysis, interpretation, and evaluation. Writing assignments give you repeated practice in prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 6000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form.

Logic: You will learn methods of argument analysis, both rhetorical and logical, that will allow you to identify logical structures (such as warrants, evidence, qualification, rebuttal; enthymemes and syllogisms) and distinguish common logical fallacies.

Reading: In addition to being writing intensive, ENGL 2 is also a reading course. You will read a variety of critical and argumentative texts to help develop your skills for understanding the logical structure of argumentative writing.

Oral: You will be presenting your arguments orally to class both as an individual and as part of a group.

Time Commitment

Success in ENGL 2 is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

Final Examination or Evaluation

In ENGL 2, our learning culminates in a digital Reflection and Portfolio Assignment. In this assignment, we will gather samples of our writing that demonstrate our learning; we will write a reflection essay that explains what we have learned, how we learned it, and how we will use it in future learning; and we will submit our portfolio for consideration to other people in the first-year writing program. This is our chance to identify and articulate what we've learned and what we'll take forward with us into future learning/writing experiences.

First-Year Writing policies are listed at the following website:

Program Information

Welcome to this General Education course.

SJSU's General Education Program establishes a strong foundation of versatile skills, fosters curiosity about the world, promotes ethical judgment, and prepares students to engage and contribute responsibly and cooperatively in a multicultural, information-rich society. General education classes integrate areas of study and encourage progressively more complex and creative analysis, expression, and problem solving.

The General Education Program has three goals:

Goal 1: To develop students' core competencies for academic, personal, creative, and professional pursuits.

Goal 2: To enact the university's commitment to diversity, inclusion, and justice by ensuring that students have the knowledge and skills to serve and contribute to the well-being of local and global communities and the environment.

Goal 3: To offer students integrated, multidisciplinary, and innovative study in which they pose challenging questions, address complex issues, and develop cooperative and creative responses.

Course Goals

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

GE Area A3: Critical Thinking and Writing

Area A3 courses develop students' understanding of the relationship of language to logic. By engaging students in complex issues requiring critical thinking and effective argumentation, A3 courses develop students' abilities to research and analyze important topics and to construct their own arguments on issues that generate meaningful public debate and deliberation. Courses include explicit instruction and practice in inductive and deductive reasoning as well as identification of formal and informal fallacies of language and thought. Completion of Area A2 (Written Communication I) with a minimum grade of C- is a prerequisite for enrollment in Area A3. Completion of Area A3 with a grade of C- or better is a CSU graduation requirement.

GE Area A3 Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of an Area A3 course, students should be able to:

1. locate, interpret, evaluate, and synthesize evidence in a comprehensive way, including through library research; and integrate research findings into oral and written arguments through appropriate citation and quotation;
2. use a range of rhetorical and logical strategies to articulate and explain their positions on complex issues in dialogue with other points of view;
3. identify and critically evaluate the assumptions in and the contexts of arguments; and
4. use inductive and deductive logic to construct valid, evidence-supported arguments and draw valid conclusions.

Writing Practice: Students will write a minimum of 6000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form.

✓ Grading Information

Contract Grading

This course utilizes the “Contract Grading” methodology. Think of this like the old adage, “It’s about the journey, not the destination.” This means, if a student completes a set number of assignments—on time and in good faith*—then, that student is guaranteed a minimum grade in the class of a B (or 85%). Contract Grading deemphasizes the final product/grade as the student’s ultimate goal. Instead, the focus shifts to bettering a student’s skills through writing as a process.

Your grades will be logged as either P (completed/satisfactory) or O (missing/unsatisfactory). For students who wish to work for a grade higher than 85%, additional assignments will be graded in the traditional A-B-C model (see Pathway 2 below).

Your grade can follow one of three potential pathways:

Pathway 1: Earning a B (85%)	In order to earn a B (85%), you must complete the following 12 assignments* on time (and in good faith): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Diagnostic (750 words) 2. Comparison and Contrast (750 words) 3. Op/Ed (750 words) 4. Close Read/Short Answer Responses (750 words) 5. Critical Analysis (750 words) 6. Slide Presentation (750 words) 7. Reflection 1 (500 words) 8. Reflection 2 (500 words) 9. Reflection 3 (500 words) 10. Reflection 4 (500 words) 11. Research Project (2,250 words) 12. English Dept. Self-Reflection Essay & ePortfolio (750 words) Additionally, you are required to consistently attend class and actively participate, both on Zoom and in Packback. *Rubrics will be available in Packback
Pathway 2: Earning higher than 85%	In order to earn higher than 85%, you must: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Complete all the criteria listed in Pathway 1 2. Complete a fifth reflection (250 words) 3. Instead of an eight-page and five-side research project, yours will be ten pages and seven slides (2,850 words) Note: This path does not guarantee an A. It only offers the opportunity to earn higher than 85%. To receive an A, your work must meet A-level criteria, as defined by the Department Grading Policy (see above).

Pathway 3:	You will earn lower than 85% if:
Earning less than 85%	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. You do not complete ALL of Pathway 1 or are late on assignments and/or 2. The assignments are not completed in good faith, as outlined by the rubrics.

*1. "Good faith" means a sincere effort to complete the assignment to the best of your ability 2. For assignments pertaining to Packback, "good faith" includes asking at least one question, and answering two others.
