Canvas

Canvas will be used to post various files.

Logging Into Canvas Login URL: <https://sjsu.instructure.com/>.

*Please note that it should NOT have the "www" at the start of the URL like many other websites.

All students and faculty must first set up their SJSUOne account before accessing Canvas.

To do so, go to <http://its.sjsu.edu/services/sjsuone/>.

The Username for Canvas then is your 9 digit SID and your PW is the one you chose when you established your SJSUOne account.

You will see the courses you are taking (assuming the instructor is using Canvas).

Further Assistance with Canvas Students should go first to <http://guides.instructure.com/m/4212> with problems and then to the University Help Desk for Canvas problems, including logging in (<http://www.sjsu.edu/helpdesk/>).

You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU at <http://my.sjsu.edu> (or other communication system as indicated by the instructor) to learn of any updates.

Learning Outcomes :

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CLO1: Recognize normative (i.e., “average” or “typical”) and individual aspects of development.

This objective will be accomplished by discussion of such aspects in chapters 14-16 in the assigned textbook. The aspects will also be reflected in an interview of an adolescent in regard to selected developmental theories.

CLO2: Identify and describe psychological theories and concepts of cognitive, social, and emotional development.

This objective will be accomplished by discussing such theories as Freud’s Psychosexual Development, Erickson’s Psychosocial Development, and Piaget’s Cognitive Development.

CLO3: Have an appreciation of the variety of factors that may influence the process of development, including the potential impact of such factors as genetics, ethnicity, culture, gender, and socioeconomic status.

This objective will be accomplished by completing a research paper which explores described topics that affect development.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLO)

Upon successful completion of the psychology major requirements... PLO1 – Knowledge Base of Psychology – Students will be able to identify, describe, and communicate the major concepts, theoretical perspectives, empirical findings, and historical trends in psychology.

PLO2 – Research Methods in Psychology – Students will be able to design, implement, and communicate basic research methods in psychology, including research design, data analysis, and interpretations.

PLO3 – Critical Thinking Skills in Psychology – Students will be able to use critical and creative thinking, skeptical inquiry, and a scientific approach to address issues related to behavior and mental processes.

PLO4 – Application of Psychology – Students will be able to apply psychological principles to individual, interpersonal, group, and societal issues.

PLO5 – Values in Psychology – Students will value empirical evidence, tolerate ambiguity, act ethically, and recognize their role and responsibility as a member of society.

Paper: Due May 12

Option 1: (worth 100 points) Compare yourself to the theories below and write a paper integrating what you have learned from the major stage theorists in Developmental Psychology.

Discuss all of the following theories:

1. Psychosexual stages you have completed and are currently in, according to Freud.
2. Psychosocial stages you have completed and are currently in, according to Erikson
3. Cognitive stage you have completed or currently in, according to Piaget,
4. Describe your systems according to Bronfenbrenner.

How are those stages going for you? What is your insight into any problems or successes you may be having at this stage in your development? Write a minimum 5 page paper typed, double-spaced, font size of 12, and of college level. Please proofread, spell-check, and include citations in the body of your paper and a works cited page (using APA or MLA format) if applicable. Papers will be graded by the following criteria: timeliness, typos, grammar, content, and citations of references.

Option 2: (worth 100 points) Choose a topic regarding adolescence of your choice that you can relate to and is either described in the book or approved by me. Discuss why you have chosen the topic in your paper and what research has been done on that topic. All papers should be 5 page minimum papers typed, double-spaced, font size of 12, and of college level. Please proofread and spell-check. Please include citations in the body of your paper and a works cited page (using APA or MLA format). Papers will be graded by the following criteria: timeliness, typos, grammar, content, and citations of references.

Option 3: (worth 100 points) Interview the parent of an adolescent and describe the triumphs and challenges he/she/they has/have encountered raising an adolescent in a 5 page Paper. Make reference to various topics that were discussed in the book or our lectures.

Option 4: (worth 100 points) Put together a presentation regarding a topic which you believe adolescents encounter today and was not mentioned in our book. Presentations will be presented on the last day of class.

Oral Presentation Requirements:

- 10-15 min powerpoint/visual presentation of content
- Provide information in a logical sequence
- Information should be clear and communicated well
- Provide good eye-contact and hold the attention of the class
- visual presentation is designed well and appealing
- Paper Handout or link to Handout provided
- Accurate Content regarding topic not discussed in class or a topic discussed more in depth
- Provide time for questions
- Use creativity

Papers will be graded by the following criteria:

Timeliness-5

Grammar-5

Editing-5

Citations-5

Works Cited Page-5

At least 5 pages

Content-70

University Policies/Resources Academic integrity:

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University's Academic Integrity policy, located at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm>, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>. Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act:

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, please let me know. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aec/> to establish a record of their disability.

Librarian: Psychology

The SJSU library has a librarian who specializes in psychology (and other social sciences), and this librarian can serve as a very valuable resource for helping you to develop research ideas and locating appropriate research materials. The library also has an abundance of resources for doing psychology research:
